Our Privacy Policy

Derry City and Strabane District Council complies with the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) to ensure that it properly manages any personal information it collects from you. The council is a registered Data Controller with the Information Commissioner's Office (Reg. No. ZA119397).

Derry City and Strabane District Council provides a wide range of services. To provide some of these services the Council needs to collect and use appropriate personal information; this may be collected either in person, over the phone, through application forms, through online services or from third parties.

The Council will ensure that it obtains your personal information lawfully and transparently. It will also maintain it securely and accurately.

The Council will also only collect the minimum information necessary to carry out its public duties and, when it no longer needs it, will dispose of it in a secure manner.

If the Council needs to use the information for any additional purposes or uses, it will let you know at the point of collection.

Sometimes the Council has to share or confirm personal information with other organisations; if it needs to do this the Council will make this clear to you at the point of collection, providing details of the third parties.

The Council will only share information when it is fair and lawful to do so and when the third party can clearly demonstrate its data protection compliance.
